

TOP ARTIST KILLED

By JOE MDHLELA

Mr STANLEY Nkosi . . . in happier times.

A POPULAR Katlehong resident and an internationally renowned artist Stanley Nkosi was murdered last weekend.

Mr Nkosi is understood to have been stabbed to death over the weekend after allegedly picking an argument with people at a Katlehong house.

East Rand police could not give details of his death but confirmed that Mr Nkosi was killed.

Mr Nkosi owned a shopping complex which he had let out.

He was a well-travelled artist, exhibiting his work in Britain, Germany and the United States.

He was popularly known as "Mfoza." His death will come as a shock to those who knew him, a fellow artist, Mr Linda Noluthungu, said.

"We have lost a good artist who dedicated his life to perfecting his work," Mr Noluthungu said.

At the time of his death Mr Nkosi was planning to undertake a European exhibition tour.
